

20. The hand fan, the world's most basic air conditioner, . . .of years.

Chapter Review One p 117

1. The twins were born on July 29, 1995, in Sarasota, Florida.
2. The world's oldest musical instruments, laboriously carved . . .years ago, were . . .
3. In Florida a special law . . .Sunday, or they risk arrest, a fine, or a stay in jail.
4. Remove the comma.
5. The seven dwarfs are Bashful, Doc, Dopey, Grumpy, Happy, Sleepy, and Sneezzy.
6. My best friend, Martin Andrew De Salvo, was the first to wish me good luck.
7. The heroes of American legends are generally tall, big-muscled men with fierce, undaunted courag
8. I have had enough, that's all.
9. Pamela Anderson is Canada's Centennial Baby, the first baby born on the 100th anniversary. . .
10. Correct
11. Correct
12. Please mail the receipt to Janice Malley, 20801 Lansing Lane, Littleton, Colorado 80124.

Chapter Eight - CommasChapter Review One con't. p 117

13. Correct
14. Steve Jobs, the founder of Apple Corporation, acupuncture, dietary supplements, and juices
15. Adrian insists he doesn't believe in UFOs, aliens, or ghosts.
16. Our club met for the first time at 7 p.m. on January 21, 2009, in downtown Phoenix, Arizona.
17. Before Brad Pitt . . . chauffeur, a furniture mover, and . . .
18. Correct
19. Correct
20. The Declaration of Independence was signed on July 4, 1776, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Chapter Review Two p 118

1. Mr. Andrews, who teaches digital photography, is a professional photographer.
2. Remove the commas.
3. Jesse James, Billy the Kid, and Butch Cassidy are famous American outlaws.
4. Remove the commas.
5. Correct
6. Colin Marley, who is working this month as a fortune teller, always has unusual jobs.
7. Correct
8. Camel's milk, a popular drink in Arab countries, has ten times more iron than cow's milk.
9. Buddy, the first seeing-eye dog in America, was brought to the U.S. from Switzerland in 1928.
10. Shangri-La, the first name of the Presidential retreat in Maryland, was . . . grandson, David.
11. Remove the commas.
12. The novel, a book recommended by Oprah Winfrey, is tense, exciting, and difficult to put down.
13. The Henry Ford Museum, located in Dearborn, Michigan, is well worth seeing.
14. Since the 1940s the American Ad Council, a non-profit corporation, has been . .
15. Yu Youzhen, a Chinese millionaire, works . . .
16. Asia, the largest of the earth's continents, accounts for three fifths of the world's population.
17. Remove the commas.
18. Ulysses Grant, a Civil War hero of the Northern Army, became the 18th president. . .
19. The cheeta, found in southern Asia and southern Africa, can run 45-70 miles an hour . . .
20. Correct

Chapter Review Three p 120

1. A daily dose of aspirin, taken by many people to prevent heart attacks, may also reduce . . .
2. The Calvin Klein model was a slim, dark, dashing figure.
3. Remove the commas.
4. Notes From a Small Island, written by American author Bill Bryson, was recently . . .
5. Craigslist, which started in San Francisco in 1995, . . .
6. Victoria Woodhall, an American political reformer, ran for president in 1872.
7. The only two Southern state capitals not occupied by Northern troops during the Civil War were Austin, Texas, and Tallahassee, Florida.
8. The restaurant is located at 185 East Bay Street, Charleston, South Carolina 29401.
9. Patrick Dempsey began . . . juggling, unicycle-riding clown.
10. Remove the commas.
11. Halley's Comet, named for astronomer Edmund Halley, appears approximately every 76 years.
12. The term cop comes from constable on patrol, a term used in England.
13. Sheila ordered a dainty breakfast of scrambled eggs, bacon, wheat toast, hash browns, orange juice, and coffee.
14. Remove the commas.

Answer Key

Chapter Eight - Commas

Chapter Review Three con't. p 120

15. The Pentagon in Arlington, Virginia, has five sides and five stories and five acres of land.
16. Kristen carefully washed her shiny, new red convertible.
17. Maps, blueprints, and photographs were on the table.
18. Two log cabins . . . relax in an intimate, rustic space.
19. The letter . . . to Mr. Jack Watson, 111 Water Tower Place, Apt 806, Chicago, Illinois 60605.
20. Remove the commas.