

13. George Eastman, the founder of Kodak Corporation, hated to have his picture taken.
14. As a matter of fact, it would be a good time to apologize.
15. Bobby Leach, the second man . . . in a barrel, survived the fall, bur later died . . .

Chapter Review Four p 123

1. Extended exposure to dark, gloomy days . . .
2. Remove the comma.
3. Well, the U.S. has more lawyers . . .
4. Kristen, do you know the Web address?
5. Jupiter, the fifth planet from the sun, is the largest planet in our solar system.
6. The "black box" . . . is actually orange, so that . . .
7. Remove the commas.
8. People with high self-esteem . . . longer, more successful relationships.
9. Battle Creek, Michigan, is the home of two of America's biggest brand names in cereals, Post and Kellogg's.
10. Jill has long, straight dark brown hair.
11. Honey, I'm home!
12. About 1,000 movies a year are produced in India, about twice the output of Hollywood.
13. The essence . . . found in respected newspapers, magazines, and academic journals.
14. Lisa, normally quite sensible, came up with a really crazy idea.
15. In China, (optional) clocks, handkerchiefs, straw sandals, and flowers . . . with death and funerals, and . . .
16. No, I wasn't aware . . .
17. The world's smallest butterfly, the dwarf blue from Africa, has a wingspan of only one-half inch.
18. A 30-year-old woman in Des Moines, Iowa, was arrested . . . former best friend, who . . .
19. Claude Monet, the French painter, completed his famous water lily paintings when he was 84 years old.
20. Propylene Glycol, commonly used as an anti-freeze, can . . .

Exercise Seven p 125

Answer Key

1. The hostages in the bank robbery were released unharmed, and police were able to persuade . . .
2. It takes most people 48 to 100 tries to solve a Rubik's Cube puzzle, but if done perfectly . . .
3. To reduce tiredness while driving long distances, keep your back as straight as possible . . .
4. New Mexico State's . . . one student, and he was shot . . .
5. Alligator meat is considered healthier than domestic chicken, for the cholesterol and fat content are lower.
6. In a war of wits, you're an unarmed soldier.
7. Bruce Dickinson . . . world-class fencer, author, and licensed Boeing 757 pilot.
8. Correct
9. Men named Kent have a 69% chance of being Republicans, while women named Annie . . .
10. It is the female lion that does more than 90% of the hunting, while the male is either . . .
11. By the end of elementary school, the average American child has witnessed . . .
12. Since pumpkin pulp doesn't grind up thoroughly, plumbers recommend that pumpkin pulp . . .
13. A rectangle has four right angles, while . . . four equal sides, and . . .
14. Just as my friend told me someone had died in the fire, we saw the hearse drive up.
15. Drivers tend . . . around them, and it doesn't matter if the other cars are in front, beside, or behind them.
16. After the union leader and the president of the company . . . settled, reporters began shouting questions.
17. Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr . . . on July 11, 1804, and Hamilton was mortally wounded and . . .
18. Italy is famous for its fine leather goods, but Italian shoes are expensive.
19. Marco Polo was . . . The Travels of Marco Polo, and he gave 14th century Europeans the first . . .
20. When doing business in Turkey, it's the custom . . . for the meal, and requests . . .