

Chapter Review Five p 126

1. Give the job to Halle, not me.
2. During National Clean Your Closet Week in March, the Dress for Success organization . . .
3. A northern California couple . . . a modern-day bonanza: $10 million in rare, mint-condition . . .
4. Mrs. Hong should be promoted, not fired.
5. Since it takes glass a million years to decompose, it never wears out and can be recycled an infinite . . .
6. Triggered by a landslide that buried the mountain town of Yungay, Peru, an estimated . . .
7. Intelligent men and women . . . people in general, but they . . .
8. After Washington state road crews removed three large dams built by the same beaver, they decided to spend $15,000 to hire a beaver trapper.
9. Michelangelo was 26 when he began sculpting his celebrated David statue, and he finished it . . .
10. All of the roles in Shakespeare's plays were originally acted by men and boys, since it wasn't . . .
11. Carter, get lost.
12. To be sure the package would arrive on time, I sent it Federal Express.
13. The world's largest gothic cathedral, the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, is located on . . .
14. Americans eat over 20 pounds of candy annually, but the Dutch eat three times as much.
15. President Woodrow Wilson . . . White House lawn, and he
16. The world's first transplant . . . her nose, lips, and chin had been seriously injured when she . . .
17. Correct
18. Horatior Alger inspired . . . who became rich, but Alger himself died poor.
19. According to a recent study, removing allergens such as dust from homes could reduce the chance . . .
20. It is estimated that six year olds laugh 300 times a day, but adults laugh only 15 to 100 times a day.
21. For people who have trouble sleeping, researchers . . .
22. Hollywood celebrities . . . the Beverly Hills Hotel, owned by the Sultan of Brunei,
23. In Natoma, Kansas, it's illegal . . .
24. Amid an epidemic of overdose deaths from prescription drugs, medical boards . . .
25. Scientists . . . brain light up: a thinking part . . . get the joke, a movement area that tells your muscles to move, and . . .

Chapter Eight - Commas

Final Chapter Review p 128

1. Correct
2. Whales are mammals, not fish.
3. According to a recent poll, most Americans . . . China, Vietnam, or Bangladesh.
4. On a raised platform at the front of the ballroom, the wedding party posed for photographs.
5. In order to be able to see a rainbow, you must have your back to the sun.
6. Pluto was once considered the ninth planet in our solar system, but. . .
7. I'm sure I need a period here, not a comma.
8. They live at 2804 Washington Street, San Jose, California 97433.
9. Correct
10. Taylor, would you give me a ride downtown tomorrow morning?
11. Denmark's largest power company, Dong Energy, plans to build . . . in towns, cities, and. . .
12. Correct
13. King George I of England, who was born and raised in Germany, never learned . . .
14. As a precaution in the event of a crash, Prince Charles . . .
15. A mythical creature, the griffin, had the body of a lion, the wings of a bird, and the head of an eagle.
16. Park your car in the parking lot, not on the street.
17. The average child in the United States spends . . . watching television, more time than in the classroom.
18. On May 25, 2011, 20 days after a tornado struck Joplin, Missouri, an Indiana couple discovered a receipt that had blown 525 miles from Joplin to their porch, the longest recorded journey of debris from a tornado.
19. Forcing back his anger, Jeffrey apologized to Latisha.
20. In most parts of the world, brides wear vibrant, colorful wedding dresses.
21. Fortune cookies were invented in the United States, not China.
22. Jessica Alba's charity work includes working with Clothes Off Our Backs, Habitat for Humanity, the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, and Project HOME.
23. Keith is looking forward to his internship this summer, but he can't decide whether he wants to work at a technology company or at an investment firm.
24. A Kansas basketball jersey adorned with a heart and Taylor Swift's autograph was sold as a collector's item for $1,005 on March 2, 2011.
25. Correct